

While on vacation this summer Bill Horn had the opportunity to visit the USS North Carolina battle ship, moored in Wilmington, NC. Even while on vacation Bill looks for his products in use. Below is a picture of the galley (kitchen) where Bill would obviously have an interest.

Look what Bill found in the galley! A 1940 vintage Edlund #1 can opener, still in operational condition.

No doubt that Edlund products are built to last.